WHY ARE FORESTS IMPORTANT?

Our forests provide clean water, purify the air, maintain biodiversity, provide habitat for species, and play a central role in reducing the impacts of climate change.

Canada’s forests are also vital for the livelihood of Aboriginal and other forest dependent communities. When managed responsibly, forests are also a source of renewable and recyclable products such as lumber, furniture, and paper.

HOW DOES FSC WORK?

FSC runs a global forest certification system with two key components: Forest Management and Chain of Custody.

The certification process is carried out by independent organizations called certification bodies, which assess forest managers and forest product companies against FSC standards.

FSC certification allows companies to label their FSC products which then enables consumers to choose products that support responsible forest management.

WHAT ARE THE LABELS MEAN?

FSC. GOOD FOR BUSINESS

- Make complex supply chains more understandable. Certification provides better traceability, simplifying what is asked of suppliers by using agreed standards and generating better relations with producers.

- Mitigate risk. Rigorous auditing, transparency of origin, and outsourcing assurance of responsible practices to local experts can help companies mitigate risk of sourcing from complex supply chains.

- Ensure sustainable supply for whole industry. Certification can strengthen your reputation and ensure a sustainable future for the whole sector.

- Meet consumer expectations. By communicating compliance with sustainability standards, your company can increase consumer awareness of sustainable sourcing and create market differentiation for your products.

GOOD FOR THE FOREST

- FSC certified forests protect waterways and wildlife habitat, conserve regions of high biodiversity, and minimize the impact of harvesting.

- FSC prohibits the conversion of natural forests for plantations, mining, oil exploration or agriculture.

- Independent auditors monitor forestry practices annual on-the-ground.

- FSC requires that Aboriginal Peoples rights are respected.
